

INTERNSHIP IN BERLIN

Business Intelligence Internship

Our partner company enables the customer to find the perfect rental car by comparing all wellknown car rental companies for all destinations worldwide.

With your role as Business Intelligence Intern, you will support the BI Team in Berlin. You help the teams to develop, implement and maintain sustainable, high-performance, growth-ready, data-processing and data integration systems.

DESCRIPTION

Your Profile:

You have a great affinity for numbers and available on a very high analytical mindset
Very good knowledge of Microsoft Excel
Demonstrated strong written, verbal communication, and presentation skills in English
Demonstrated strong organizational and time management skills, with attention to detail
Demonstrated aptitude and willingness to learn new analytical methods, software applications, and tools

Your Tasks:

Planning, structuring of strategic and operating projects
Development of ideas concerning marketing and coverage (offline and online)
Analysis concerning competition and segments and thus developing options for action
Preparation of graphics and presentations as well as document management and checking offerings concerning formal aspects
Market research and analysis of existing brands as well as screenings of industries and deep researching topics
Systematic research, analysis and post-processing related to decision-making process and strategic option for action

Offer:

A multidisciplinary, highly motivated team in an innovative environment
Great opportunities for personal development
A flat hierarchy and a collegial and helpful work environment
A young, dynamic and international team
Regular Team events
Fruits and free drinks
3 - 6 Months Internship with University Agreement
Language: English
Salary: 500 euro per month

More information
here

