

KODOLANYI JANOS UNIVERSITY

Erasmus+

9TH INTERNATIONAL WEEK
8-12 APRIL 2019

FOR STUDENTS (GROUPS AND INDIVIDUALS)

Owing to a positive feed-back from a substantial number of our partner institutions we also welcome students (groups or individuals) to the 9th International Week as a field trip or study tour that combines theoretical knowledge with practical experiences also giving an excellent opportunity to have a better understanding of Hungary.

The International Week is offered to international students in the form of a condensed elective course or field-trip /study tour under the title:

“Academy of International Lecturers – Contemporary Trends in Applied Sciences” (5 ECTS)

Purpose of the course: The 9th edition of the KJU International Week organized as a series of lectures is meant to improve the intercultural competencies of students. The seminars held by the guest lecturers of our partner universities reflect the latest achievements in science and research and aim to provide students with practical knowledge, competencies and innovative approaches. Furthermore, participants will also can experience new pedagogical methods. Due to the multidisciplinary nature of the event, students can opt for lectures best suited to their individual interests and/or field of study. In addition to that, the international exposure can prove an asset by providing the student with perspectives for choosing a subject for their thesis as well as for its completion.

Please, note that the deadline for the submission of the registration form is 25 February 2019.

The participation at the international conference during the International Week is free of charge for students
